Thos. Vines, Who Stole Ten Thousand Dollars, Makes a Remarkable Journey to St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 2 .- A Chi -go embezzler, who packed himself and $10,000 in a trunk arrested here to-night. He is Thomas Vines, who took the pay of 700 employes, action, and adapted to all constitutions. amounting to $10,000, of the Adams and West Lake Manufacturing company, Chicago, and disappeared Saturday. He took the money and with the aid of a confederate, whom he refuses to name, hired a room near the factory and made preparations for flight. He was disguised as a negro, and secreting the money in old stockings, threw them under old clothes in the bottom of a trunk that had been secured. Last night he thought the vigilance of the police had been relaxed, so Vines' confederate sent an expressman to remove the trunk, and in his disguise helped the expressman load it on the wagon. Holes to give air had been on the wagon. Holes to give air had been cut in the trunk. On the way to the depot Vines told the expressman he intended to beat his way to St. Louis by going in the trunk, being too poor to pay his fare. The expressman thought it risky, but didn't interfere when Vines opened the trunk, jumped in and snapped the lid shut with a spring lock.

spring lock.

The trunk was put into the baggage roon The trunk was put into the baggage room by the expressman and the check for it placed in the possession of Vines' accomplice. Vines and the trunk were put on the train and his $10,000 was treated as common baggage for a distance of 100 miles. That was as long as the embezzler could endure it, so at a convenient opportunity he got out. The trunk was carelessly closed by the trainmen and the contents left undisturbed. At St. Louis the trunk could not be obtained by Vines without a check, and his confederate did not appear. Considerable plty was exwithout a check, and his confederate did not appear. Considerable pity was expressed by the depot men for Vines, and a small collection was taken up to buy him dinner and supper. His strange story reached the ears of the police, and aroused suspiction. Vines' description had been received from Chicago, and the reading of it resulted in the dispatch of an officer to arrest the fugitive. Vines was arrested while begging the baggageman to disregard the regulations and give up the trunk.

TWELVE TERMS IN THE EAST,

A Compliment to Moses Morris, Master King Solomon Lodge, F. A. and A. M.

At the installation services in the Masonic Temple on the evening of Dec. 27, when Moses Morris was conducted into office as master of King Solomon Lodge for the twelfth consecutive term a magnificent silver tea set of seven pieces was presented to him by tht members of his lodgde. C. B. Noisa was the spokesman, who said:

"Brother Morris: To merit the appreciation of those with whom we come in contact is, and ought to be, one of the highest aims of human ambition, and when this appreciation becomes strikingly manifest, as in your case, it is an honor greatly to be esteemed. The pleasant duty devolves upon me on this occasion to serve as the agent by which the high feelings of regard in which you are held by the members of King Solomon lodge, over which you have presided with becoming dignity and signal ability, is to find expression. Indeed this is to me a pleasant duty, from the fact that in voicing the sentiment of the membership of King Solomon lodge, it affords me an opportunity to emphasise the personal esteem and admiration which I entertain of you as a man and a Mason. I remember very well when two years ago I first visited in King Solomon lodge, how pleased I was to find here at the base of the Rocky mountains one who, without ostenation or show could wield the gavel with the contact of the service of the servic B. Noian was the spokesman, who said: nountains one who, without ostentation or show, could wield the gavel with so much propriety and consideration. I had reason to believe and expect, coming as I did from some of the eastern centers of population, that the government of Masonic bodies here would suffer by comparison with those which it had hitherto been my privilege to visit. But here and now I am frank to admit that the thoroughness with which the work was done under your supervision, the care bestowed by you in every detail which would add impressiveness to the ceremonies connected with blue lodge Masonry, and the quiet and unobtrusive manner in which you acquitted yourself, satisfied me that it is not so much the locality or the opportunity as it is the man that adds so much to the solemnity of these ceremonies—a feature characteristic of Masonry as contradistinguished from all other secret societies.

"It is not my intention upon the beneficent properties of this time-honored institution, except merely to state that in its roll of membership are to be found the best and noblest of the human race in every age and country. And to preside over a body thus constituted is an honor which only the deserving should aspire to, and which the history of the order shows only the deserv-

deserving should aspire to, and which the history of the order shows only the deserv-ing can succeed in obtaining. The respon-sibilities which accrue from the incumbency of the office which you have been elected to fill for the twelfth time are elected to fill for the twelfth time are onerous and diversified in their character. The achievements offyour predecessors in the office from time immemorial, shedding a halo around masonry, are difficult to be surpassed; the rights of each and every individual member are to be jealously guarded; the interests of the entire body are to be carefully subserved; and at the same time the government of the lodge ly guaraed; the interests of the entire body are to be carefully subserved; and at the same time the government of the lodge should be such that no inimical feelings should find lodgment within its portals. To say that King Solomon Lodge has been thus governed is but to reiterate a fact which is obvious to all; and so successful has been your management of its affairs that year after year its members with unanimous accord retain you in the position which you so ably fill.

"As a further evidence of their unbounded respect and confidence, and to exhibit in a slight degree their consciousness of the inestimable services which you have rendered to King Solomon lodge, as shown in its increased membership, the flourishing condition of its affairs and an all-pervading spirit of fraternity, without which the lodge room is a mockery, its members upon the occasion of your installation think it proper to present to you this slight token of their esteem. If you will but ascept it in the spirit with which it is presented it will have served the purpose of the doners. Let it but serve as a memento that King Solomon Lodge is proud of you as its master, and that each and every member is proud of, you as his brother, and the object sought in the presentation will be accomplished. And let it further serve as an assurance to you that in the roil of honor which King Solomon further serve as an assurance to you that in the roll of honor which King Solomon Lodge preserves among its archives to commemorate the commendable deeds of those who have labored to uphold the standard of that grand institution which we all cherish and revere, no name will shine with greater lustre than your own,"

Something For the New Year. The world renowned success of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and their cortinued popularity for a third of a century as a stomachic, is scarcely more wonderful than welcome that greets the annual appearance of Hostetter's Almanac. This valuable medical treatise is published by Hostetter & Co., Pittsburg, Pa., under their immediate supervision, employing sixty hands in that department. Six cylinder printing presses, five tolding machines, five job presses, etc., are running about eleven job presses, etc., are running about eleven months in the year on this work, and the issue of same for 1889 will not be less than 10,000,000, printed in the English, German, French, Norwegian, Weish, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish languages. Refer to it for valuable and interesting reading concerning health and numerous testimonials as to the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomech Bitters, amusement, varied information, astronomical calculations and information, astronomical calculations and chronological items, etc. The Almanac for 1889 can be obtained free of cost from druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the country.

When the blood is impure, thick, and sluggish, or thin and impoverished, there can be no health. With these conditions, all the functions of the body are impaired, and the result is a variety of dangerous complications. The best remedy is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
